CASTELBERG'S, 935 Pa. Ave.

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS.

A largely attended meeting of Potomac Council was held Monday evening. Grand Knight Richard A. Curtin, presiding. The grand knight presented a resume of the work accomplished by this, the youngest council in this jurisdiction, during the past year, and urged the hearty co-operation of every member in order that the record for the ensuing year might be as creditable. There has been a substantial increase in the membership of this council during the past council year, and its financial condition is also in very good shape.

The Knights of Columbus Hall was crowded to the doors Tuesday evening with members from the five councils of this District to witness the joint installation ceremonies of all the officers of the various councils forming the jurisdiction of the District of Columbia. The details of the ceremonies were in charge of the officers of the State Council, the arrangements being under the supervision of State Warden Raymond De Vane, assisted by the various council wardens. The hall was most beautifully decorated with flags in honor of the occasion, and it was generally conceded that the installation ceremonies were the most elaborate ever conducted under the auspices of the local organization. With but few exceptions every one of the seventy officers presented himself for installation. The installation ceremonies were conducted by State Deputy Edward P. Harrington, assisted by District Deputies William P. Normandy and John H. Pellen, and State Warden De Vane, and began promptly at 8 o'clock. The meeting prior to the entry of the state deputy was in charge of the grand knight of Carroll Council, William J. McGee. At the conclusion of the installation of the officers of the council, addresses were made by the state deputy, and by District Deputies Normandy and Pellen. Addresses were then delivered by the following representatives of councils: Grand Knights Joseph A. Mudd, Washington Council; Charles W. Darr, Keane Council; William J. McGee, Carroll Council; Francis J. P. Cleary, Spaulding Council; and Richard A. Curtin, Potomac Council. Rev. Father Ketchum and Judge William H. De Lacy also addressed the joint councils, and all the addresses were received with much enthusiasm by the large attendance of members present. Upon motion of Charles W. Darr, a rising vote of thanks was extended to State Deputy Edward P. Harrington for the successful outcome of his work in connection with his committee, in the favorable showing made by the local organization at the Columbus memorial ceremonies. A large attendance of members and friends of the Carroll Council Assembly was present at their Halloween party, which was given at the hall Thursday evening, and a most enjoyable time was had by those participating in the celebration. The first meeting of the new council year will be held by Carroll Council Tuesday evening, at which the committees for the year will be announced and the policy of the council for the year outlined.

A movement is gaining strength in all the councils looking to more commodious quarters for the organization in this District. Already plans are being considered for the needs of the organization for the joint councils. It is admitted that the present building is not well adapted for the needs of the organization, for the reason that it has not the requisite club facilities, which the increasing membership demands for future growth and expansion. The present building was purchased ten years ago, when the local organization was not in the position, numerically or financially, as it is at the present day. There is practically very little indebtedness on the property, for the building company has managed it economically and wisely, but the organization has outgrown the limited accommodations.

Public Benefactor. From the Chicago News. "She has certainly earned the gratitude of her entire set." "As to how?" "She had her divorce hearing in open court; insisted on it instead of having it tried secretly behind closed doors."

In Memoriam.
HICKS. In sad but loving remembrance of our dear mother, MAY E. HICKS, who died two years ago today, November 2, 1910.
A shadow o'er our lovely home.
Forevermore must be.
But then, O Lord, we sent this cross:
We bear it all for Thee.
BY HER DEVOTED DAUGHTERS.

LEWIS. In loving remembrance of my dear father, WILLIAM H. LEWIS, who died November 2, 1911.
We miss thee from our home, dear;
We miss thee from thy place;
A shadow o'er our life is cast,
We miss the sunshine of thy face.
We miss thy kind and willing hand,
Thy foot, thy earnest eye,
Our hearts are dark without thee—
We miss thee everywhere.
FROM HIS DAUGHTER BESSIE.

MARSHALL. In sad but loving remembrance of our dear mother and grandmother, HATTIE E. MARSHALL, who departed this life two years ago today, November 2, 1910.
While in the ray of dawn of youth,
To God thy heart was given,
And true though life lay out,
Mid suffering soared to heaven.
The loyalty was won for thee
A crown of faith's light.
Oh, may its radiance shine on us
And cheer the dawn of night.
Anniversary mass at St. Dominic's Church.
BY HER DEVOTED DAUGHTER ELIZA. SON EDDIE AND GRANDDAUGHTERS.

OBITUARY. In memory of ALMA MARIE OBERHOLZ, only and beloved child of Mrs. Charles N. Buckard, who passed to eternal life on May 1912, and thirteen years. An accomplished pianist, she gave promise of attaining her ambition, but never being in real health, troubled fever attacked her when it seemed to every one she was looking her best. The attendance of her schoolmates at St. Anne's convent and the many beautiful floral offerings gave testimony of her appreciation. She was a devoted, self-sacrificing mother, and her taking away has been a severe blow, but we in her loved assurance that heaven has gained one more pure and unblemished soul from life's garden. Her memory I offer for the return of love and respect.
